

Freedom Network USA

Tuesday, March 19, 2019

12:30-5:30 pm Victim-Centered Investigations (LE Only)
12:30-5:30 pm FNTI Pre-Conference
6:30-8:30 pm Early Conference Registration

Wednesday, March 20, 2019

8:00 am Breakfast

9:00-9:15 am Welcoming Remarks- Jean Bruggeman, Executive Director, Freedom Network USA

9:15-9:30 am Keynote- Judge Emmet G. Sullivan, U.S. District Judge for the District of Columbia

9:30-10:30 am General Session: Truth and Evidence-Based Practice in the Anti-Trafficking Movement

10:45-12:15 pm Session 1 Breakouts

- Compensation for Trafficking Survivors: Criminal Restitution in Federal Courts
- Healthcare and Law Enforcement: Friends or Foes?
- Housing for Male Survivors: Addressing the Challenges and Identifying Housing Opportunities
- Promising Practices from the Front Lines Against Labor Trafficking: Field Lessons from Washington State and Texas
- Multi-Disciplinary Collaboration: Real World Strategies, Practices, and Tools
- Engaging Youth Survivors of Human Trafficking
- Advanced T Visa Training: Overcoming RFEs and Other Formidable Obstacles Under the Trump Administration

12:30-1:30 pm Lunch

1:30-3:00 pm Session 2 Breakouts

- Reframing the "Modern Day Slavery" Paradigm in the US
- Human Trafficking Recruitment through Exploitation of the Guestworker Program
- Motivational Interviewing: A Collaborative Approach to Empower Survivors
- Quality Language Access and Effective communication: A crucial step toward access to justice.
- Supporting Survivors: Federal Anti-Trafficking Services
- A Framework for Survivor-Informed Services: Partnerships, perspectives, and

- professionalism
- Law Enforcement Perspectives on Successful Partnerships

3-3 :30 pm

Afternoon Break

3:30-5:00 pm

Session 3 Breakouts

- Vacatur Session
- Pathways to Freedom: A Critical Opportunity for Cities to lead on the Prevention of Labor and Sexual Exploitation
- Getting Your Message Out: Media Readiness for FNUSA Members
- Empowerment and Equity: Sex trafficking Prevention Strategies
- Top Cop: Federal Anti-Trafficking Enforcement
- Building Evidence: Survivor Outcomes
- Thinking Outside the Labor Trafficking Box

5:00 pm

Wellstone Award Ceremony

Thursday, March 21, 2019

8:00 am

Breakfast

9:00-10:00 am

General Session: Exploring and Strengthening Movements

10:15 am-11:45 am

Session 4 Breakouts

- Using Data and Evidence to Address Human Trafficking
- Using Technology in the Fight Against Labor Trafficking
- The Vulnerability of Unaccompanied Children to Labor Trafficking
- Moving the Needle on Survivor Leadership: Best Practices and Innovative Ideas to Advance the Field
- Housing First For Youth Survivors
- Digging In: The Practicalities of Trauma Informed Investigations and Survivor Supports
- The Impacts of FOSTA-SESTA

12:00-1:00 pm

Lunch

1-2:30 pm

Session 5 Breakouts

- Building Power Beyond the Ideological Divide
- Human Trafficking of Non-Immigrant Visa Holders
- Foundations, Program Officers and Writing Proposals: Everything You Wanted to Know but Were Afraid to Ask
- How a Survivor Advocate Changed the Way Healthcare Looks at Human Trafficking
- Community Dialogue: Challenging Systemic Issues Impacting Anti-Trafficking Efforts
- Criminal Court Systems: Improving Victim Identification, Building Court Responses, and Reducing Harm
- Addressing the Unaccompanied Minor Crisis with a Human Trafficking Lens

2:30-3:00 pm

Afternoon Break

3-4:30 pm

Session 6 Breakouts

- Collaborative Interviews: Interview Preparation and Best Practices
- The Intersection of Forced Marriage and Human Trafficking in the United States
- Sex Workers as Anti-Trafficking Champions? Collaborating Across Boundaries to Challenge False Dichotomies to Liberate Us All
- From the Ground Up: Starting a New Anti-Trafficking Program
- Understanding the Federal Criminal Justice System: Answers to Questions You Are Reluctant to Ask
- Immigration Remedies for Survivors of Human Trafficking
- Bridging the Housing Assistance Gap: Navigating through Government Funded Housing Options and Securing a Lease