Form I-797A (Rev. 10/31/05) N
Fact sheet detailing rights and responsibilities as they relate to Continued Presence

1) Continued Presence (CP) is immigration assistance for a victim of sex or labor trafficking. It allows a victim to stay in the country legally. We believe you are a victim of human trafficking and therefore eligible for CP.

2) One of the requirements for CP is continuous physical presence in the United States. In addition, continued cooperation with law enforcement is required if you are interested in accessing public benefits from the Department of Health and Human Services. These benefits include all the benefits to which a refugee is entitled. Some of these benefits are: food stamps, medical assistance and social services. You are exempt from the cooperation clause if you are a minor.

3) If you have agreed to cooperate, we need access to you at all times to make sure that you are safe. It is therefore important for you to make sure that your Case Agent and/or Victim Assistance Specialist always have your current address and phone number.

4) CP is initially granted for one year. CP can be renewed or revoked depending on the requirements mentioned above. It can also be revoked if you willingly commit a violent crime.

5) CP recipients can travel domestically but not internationally to the country where the trafficking occurred. Additional information about CP and your rights as a victim can be found in the brochures that will be given to you with this form.

* This form has been read to me in a language that I understand.
* I agree with everything stated on this form.
* The Victim Assistance Specialist will periodically call me directly to check up on my well-being.
* If I move or change phone numbers without informing the Victim Assistance Specialist and Case Agent, I grant them permission to obtain my most recent address and phone number from the NGO to which they are referring me for long term services.
